

A Word of Expectation
Brilliant Event: Expectation
Anaheim 2017

Beloved, My intention is to open your life to the same relationship with Me that Jesus has. I'm going to create a territory in your inner man of the spirit, and I will empower your soul to come and rest in that place. You will come into a time where your soul will surrender to your spirit, and the outer man that feels all the pain and all the angst and all the negativity and is subject to so many things in the world, that outer man of the soul will come and surrender to the inner man of the spirit. Your inner man has no connection with the world except through the soul. Your inner man lives only in the presence of God. I will teach you how to step back into that inner place where I dwell within you.

Your spirit mingling with My Spirit will cause your soul to be saved and to be at peace and to come under the beauty of My presence, and in that place the harmony of Heaven will take up residence in your innermost being.

Beloved, you will be clean, and you will be whole, and you will live from the inside to the outside, no longer from the outside to the inner. That which is within you of Heaven, of Kingdom, of Myself as Creator, of My Son as Redeemer, and of My Holy Spirit as your Comforter, that is the place where all your life is carried out on this earth. In that place is where your promises and your dreams will come alive and become real. In that place you will discover provisions, and you will learn of your inheritance and step into it because all things become available to you in that place.

So as your soul surrenders to My Spirit mingling with yours, so a health and a wholeness will take residence in you and you'll become My son and My daughter, and you will have peace and rest and joy. You will be wonderfully loved and you will have encounters and experiences and epiphanies with Me. It's My plan for you to have hundreds and hundreds and hundreds and hundreds of encounters and experiences.

In this place if you allow Me to create that place inside of you, then the impossible will be made possible. You will have no lack, but you will experience a fullness, an abundance, an assurance that overwhelms you and the people I send you to.

There is a land of promise located in your new man in Christ. Jesus is the Territorial Spirit within you that overcomes everything that will be around you, and you will know things, and you will see things. If you let Me do everything that I desire to do, then you will discover that the world and its chaos are no match for the Kingdom and its magnificence.

I am so excited to bring you into this place!

But I should tell you, Beloved, it will change everything. In some cases that will mean you will need new friends, but I have those planned, too. The Kingdom within, the new man in Christ, the saving power of Jesus, the anointing of the Holy Spirit, and My passion for you will cause you to inherit everything that We desire you to have, everything that Jesus was dying to give you, everything that wonderful Holy Spirit is so excited to release you into and to teach you how to stay and abide.

I'm calling you to a wonderful life. You get to live it like we live it—no stress, no strain, no struggle--where the peace of God is so outrageous that it will guard your heart and your mind. It's your peace that will push away stress and pressure. The only pressure you will feel is the pressure of peace rising up, peace being an equalizing pressure on the inside so that when I commit you to things that are places of struggle, there will be a thousand pounds of pressure on the outside but there will be a thousand and one pounds of pressure in peace on the inside. Peace will always be an equalizing pressure.

I want you to know and love, be refreshed in My rest so that you won't be weary. You won't be burned out. You won't become disillusioned or depressed because this life overcomes all things.

These are huge building blocks in relationship for you. I understand that, but I'm a builder and I want to build something in you because it's not enough for Me to bless you. It's not enough for Me. It's not enough for Me to meet your needs. It's not enough for Me. I want to give you your inheritance. I want to build you into the same place that We occupy.

The promise of I AM is with you, and it will make you greater than any threat coming against you. We love the life that We have planned for you, but you need to surrender to Us now.

Thank You for making Us your savior. Thank you. But now We want to be your Lord also.

No matter the circumstances of the world around you, your inner land of promise will empower you to draw blessings and miracles and favor and resources from My words of promise. Ach, Beloved, I have so many promises I want you to have and so many promises I need you to have. I need you to have those promises and for those words to come alive because the people in the world need you to be like that.

So here I am. I am making demands on you. The first demand is receive all that I want you to have. Beloved, everything I have is yours. But you're going to have to learn to receive every single day because there is just so much that you have to have in your life before you finally cross over and hug Me for good. There are so many things I want you to have, you're going to have to receive every day, and maybe twice on Sunday, or three times on Tuesday, or six times in a particular situation. So I want your heart open to receive because Mine is so open to give.

I have hidden promises in your heart already, and there are so many promises going forward. Remember, Beloved, next to every difficulty there is going to be at least one brilliant promise. I do things that way because I need you to be permanently excited like We are. We are so excited about you! We are so excited about your learning, your becoming. We love who you are. We don't mind any of the struggles, We know We can do anything about anything. We're confident in who We want to be for you, and We want you to become equally as confident about the same thing.

We'd like you to travel with joy. We need you to be happy because everything We do, everything We say, is geared to you receiving joy. When you are listening to this word, don't just listen to the message, listen to the way We say it because that's how We are going to talk to you for the rest of your life in just that way.

Jesus said--and We all cheered when He said it—These words I have spoken to you so that My joy might be in you and your joy full! We loved it because We could hear His spirit laughing on the inside. Working with you makes Us so happy! We love being with you. We love being around you. You are so amazing to Us. Your life is rich with promise. We can see it. We know that some of you right now can't see it from where you're sitting, but when your soul comes under your spirit, you'll totally get it and you'll be as excited as We are. We absolutely adore you and We love working with you.

Nothing is too hard for Us. Now you are coming into a brand new space where all things are possible, where the biggest thing on the agenda every single day is you receiving goodness. Beloved, We long to do you good. There is longing in Our heart to do you good, to see you blessed, to see you whole. We've already proved that We'll go to any lengths for your good. Everything in Us is geared towards you. We created this whole thing, this whole world, this whole thing just for your sake because We had so much and We wanted a people for Ourselves, and now We have one, and We're so delighted. If you knew how many times We high-five each other in Heaven just over you because you're here now and you're here with Us--We intend to make all the difference.

Even if circumstances get darker and more desperate in the world, your inner light of promise is going to shine like a beacon giving you a release of power that will turn aside chaos where you live and so you will become a game-changer. The one who lives from within will always have power in situations without. You are designed for this so you will have no fear, no anxiety, no dread in these days. Instead there will be a joy and a peace in believing that you are the Beloved of God. You are the Bride being prepared for Jesus, who is the King of promise.

Your beauty, your power, and your grace matters to Us. It matters to Us that it will be huge and majestic. You're so much bigger than you think you are. You're so much bigger, more beautiful than you imagine you are. We will teach you how to dream your way into things, and the world will see the Beloved rising up in the earth and that will be you.

The evidence that you are living fully in the new man in Jesus is that you will have constant upgraded experiences and responses in all your life situations.

Sweetheart, I hope you don't mind Me saying that you have some catching up to do. But it's okay! We have everything arranged. We're going to give you a quickening spirit so what you think will take years will take months, what you think will take months will take weeks, what you think will take weeks will take days, what you think will take days will take hours, what you think will take hours would happen in the twinkling of an eye. A prophecy given in the morning will be fulfilled in the afternoon of the same day because there is a quickening spirit abroad in the earth.

We bring you into the place of divine advantage. It's important to Us that you have favor with Us. Beloved, We intend to be quite strong on favor because you need some. You need a divine advantage so We're going to teach you to pray. We're going to teach you to pray from a promise. We're going to teach you to pray from a prophecy. We're going to teach you proclamation and confession.

One thing We ask, could you please set aside discipline and let your heart come into a place of delight? The Kingdom runs on delight, and discipline is an outcome, it's a consequence of delight. Discipline is not the pathway. We're not asking you to be disciplined in prayer, We're asking you to be delighted because, Beloved, if you're delighted, then you will lean into it. You will pursue it. You will go after it, and the pursuit of delight causes discipline to occur. We never start anything with discipline, We always start everything with delight. So you need to know that right here, right now, regardless of how you feel or whatever is going on, We are delighted with you. I am delighted with you. Jesus is so delighted with you. And the Holy Spirit, well, He is permanently delighted about everything!

I think you're going to like Us. I think you're going to love Us. I think you are going to passionately pursue Us. The reason We know that is because We're going to do it first. You will love us because We will have loved you. We intend to love you into loving Us. So relax. No performance necessary, just receiving and allowing things to be established.

You need to know We're never going to call you on your behavior, We're just going to call you up to your identity because that's how We think. It's how We do things. It's how We see things. You're never going to hear a word of condemnation from Us, but you're going to hear lots of promises. You're going to hear Our desire. You're going to receive Our passion.

What you came in with, you're not leaving with. You're leaving with this. You came into this event through a door with chaos, but you're not leaving by the same door. The door you depart this event through is a doorway into the Kingdom, and in the Kingdom different rules apply.

It's time, Beloved, for the world to see the fullness of Jesus in My people. You are My visual aid to all of humanity to show forth the majesty of My Kingdom. So you're all going to be giants. You're all going to be bigger than you imagined. Here's the thing: You're not too old, and you're never too young! You're just the right age for majesty, and all your life situations are perfect for favor to come, perfect for majesty to overwhelm you.

Please do not disown My glory that I want to give you. I don't give My glory to another, but you are not another! You're My child. You're My Beloved. You're My household. You're My family. You're My people. You're My treasure. You're My bride. You are most definitely not another.

I fully intend to make your life glorious, but you know glory cannot be seen in a people who are the same as everybody else so I fully intend to make you different. I've got plans. I have designs on you! I am so looking forward to beginning this whole new life.

All of Egypt saw the hand of God protecting Israel in the plagues. Every nation around Egypt saw My hand at the Red Sea. People heard of the cloud and the pillar of fire leading Israel out of captivity. Yeah, We were just a tad bit ostentatious!

You have no idea how delighted We were in all those things. People saw the wealth of Egypt given to slaves of Israel. I did the impossible for forty years in the desert as this rabble of slaves became a disciplined army who could take territory. Later on the fame of Solomon's kingdom, the glory of the Temple, the wealth, were all known to the surrounding nations. Miracles, signs and wonders are only extraordinary on earth. They're just the normal, usual substance of Heaven.

"But you should know this about Me," says the Lord, "I like showing off, and if you show up, I'll show off!"

I'm so happy with everything We've got planned. I'm definitely going to do some showing off in your life. I'm going to allow some impossible situations to come, and when they come you're going to think to yourself, "Ah, He's going to show off!" and you'll be totally right. I totally will! I want to teach you to laugh at the impossible things because they're not really impossible.

I'm going to have some fun. I'm going to enjoy Myself. I'm going to love what I do in you, and you're going to rise up and become that bright-eyed, happy-faced individual who is not daunted by anything but looks forward to everything. Is anything too hard for Me? Is there any situation where I can't be magnificent?

Beloved, please don't live like a beggar when you have an inheritance in My Son and in Myself. Stop praying like a widow and learn to pray like a bride.

Here's the thing: Fullness is not an option, it's a necessity in a world threatened with chaos and uncertainty. My people will no longer be an obstacle to glory, they will be the solution as they experience the fullness that Jesus died to give them.

I know that the real battle in the world is with hope. Hope is the favorable and confident expectation of goodness, and I'm so happy that we're going to learn that together over these next few years.

I'm going to teach you joyful anticipation that provides a capacity in you to look forward with assurance and partner with Me in the fullness of all that I intend for you. I have big dreams about you. I have large intentions about you, and today I commission you to cultivate the power of expectation into a true lifestyle in Christ. There is a place of abiding in Him where My own enormous, outrageous expectation of goodness will lift you into a place of power and prominence in My Kingdom and, therefore, in the world. I AM is with you. I AM is with you to do you good. In Christ you already possess a new covenant based entirely on favor and expectation of goodness.

I know it sounds like a dream, eh? It's supposed to because you're coming into a place of dreaming. You are coming into a place of wonder. You're coming into a place of awe as a human being. In a world going mad, your joy will be wonderful to behold.

Your inheritance in Christ is a goodness that overcomes, that overwhelms and overturns the natural order of men. Your life is now one of encounter with expectation so great it will engulf your circumstances and overwhelm your heart.

As you embrace the Kingdom, the church will be empowered to return to her rightful place in the world. The Body of Christ will realign with the head and return to its resurrection beginning. The Head over all things will come for His real body to raise up a real Bride, and the King will return for His love, His first love, and the world will see the glory of My house reigning and ruling by their inheritance.

For that to happen, My people must step into a new way of seeing, thinking, and speaking. The mind of Christ in you will govern all your life events, and your inner life of promise will enable you to have creative thoughts and ideas about your life circumstances.

There is a flow, a river, of promises that will come to you from Scripture, from prophecy, from dreams, from upgraded vision. You will be awash with promise, alive with intentionality, with more promises than you require so that you will release them into cities and nations and awful circumstances. Bitter circumstances will become sweet and pure and powerful.

I am releasing inventions and patents and wealth ideas will come into My body from the power and the substance of the Kingdom. There will be an outpouring of majesty the like of which the world has never seen. What I do in these days will dwarf what happened at Pentecost! From this place you will look back and you will see Pentecost as a small thing. What you are in will be so amazing.

As you listen to this over and over again, understand this is the language of the Kingdom. This is the thinking of the Kingdom. This is the lens of the Kingdom that We are bestowing upon you.

I will declare My majesty through the power of goodness, and your promises will expand by My will so that they overshadow everything around you. When there seems no way forward or your promise seems far away or dwarfed by circumstances, stand in that place and ask Me for My Spirit of wisdom and revelation. Call upon Me for a quickening spirit. Talk to Me about divine advantage. You have My permission to come into My space and get into My face, but I'm warning you, if your face gets anywhere close to Mine, I'm so going to kiss you!

In the same way that Jesus moved in expectation, when He sent Peter to the sea to catch a fish so that he could pay his taxes by a coin in its mouth that was absurd, and We loved it! That was a great idea! That was just us messing around with Jesus, "Jesus, you've got to pay your taxes. Why don't you go send that boy, Peter, tell him to go fish, and we'll make sure that a particular fish will be swimming around at the right time and it will have a couple of gold coins in its mouth, and you can pay your taxes and his taxes, and he will have a story that will open his heart into Our world of possibilities.”

We’re going to give you encounters like that, Beloved, so you’ll have all these great, weird stories about Us, about Us and about you in the same space. Oh my gosh, this is going to be so cool for Us! Honestly, this stuff makes Us so happy. We love this! We sit around and talk about stuff like this, “Hey, let’s do this! Let’s do it that way. Oh, he’s going to get a kick out of that. Let’s do it that way.”

We’re thinking about you all the time. We just don’t want you to be average about anything. What you learn from Us in all of this is that We are so consistent in Our approach to you, but We’re also completely unpredictable. We’re never going to do it the same way twice because We’re not going to establish a pattern for you to follow by yourself, We prefer you to be living sensitively towards Us. So we’re going to teach you how to be sensitive, how to move with the wind.

Beloved, an expectant heart must become a constant so that you are constantly pregnant with promise so I’ll tell you this: There is always a promise of more to come, and it will be new every morning. What if I wanted to give you 365 promises in a year? But what if I got greedy and wanted to give you more? What if the quickening Spirit, what if the divine advantage, what if the favor over you is so huge that you enter into a completely different space where our conversations are so different than they have been, and all things will be possible?

You’re going to learn that a promise is a personal word from Me to you and, therefore, it becomes a guarantee of fulfillment. My word never returns to Me void, but you have to learn not to let go of it. We’re in days of such plenty that if you let go of a promise, somebody else will pick it up before it hits the ground! I am with you regardless of circumstances.

There is a quickening spirit abroad in the earth right now, and that’s why you need to learn anticipation because in anticipation, things will approach you faster, resources will come quicker. In some cases your anticipation will enable you to appropriate before the time because We're speeding up time. We are redeeming time so that Our Beloved can get on track with Our will, Our intentionality. So We're going to teach you how to surf through your circumstances, how to ride the wave of circumstance and not drown. We're going to teach you a life above, not a life beneath. Your ministry will be the bandwagon that everyone wants to be on.

I'm teaching you to expect to apprehend, to expect to have encounters, resolutions, to expect to grow in Christ like crazy. Beloved, I'm so looking forward to this time. I am so excited for you and all that We have planned. So I want you to relax, take a deep breath, put your tray in the upright position, fasten your seatbelt because we are about to take off! Walk with Me, Beloved, because We're pushing you into days that you can't even dream about, but We will help you with that also.

So this is your response, "Father, be it unto me according to Your will. Do all that is on Your heart to do. Teach me to run, not just to walk. So here I am, and I am saying 'Yes' to You, Papa. I'm saying 'Yes' to Your intentionality. I'm saying 'Yes' to my big adventure with You!"

We are saying 'Yes' to you. We're telling you that We are thrilled for this time. We're so excited!

Hey, do you want to start today? Would you like to start today? Today, while it is still called today? Just let your heart be soft. For you, now is the expected time. Now is always the expected time because you are playing catch up for a wee while. You're playing catch up, and when you're really on track, well, We'll talk about that when we get there.

"Our expectation," says the Lord, "is that you will enjoy this time as much as We do because everything is changing and turning for your good."

Amen.

Graham's Instructions:

This would be the really bright thing to do: When you get the CD or you watch it on TV or whatever, write it down, and listen to the way that it is spoken. And when you hear a smile, just make sure you put the word 'smile' in the margin. When you hear a laugh, just make sure you put the word 'laugh' in the margin so that when you read it out loud—because the Lord is going to ask you to read it out loud—but you can do it in your own accent, that will be fine! But when you read it out, and you get to a place where there is a laugh there, you're going to have to laugh. You're going to have to read it back to Him in the same way that He read it to you.

Here's the thing: For the rest of your life, you're going to hear God speaking to you in exactly that way--the voice of kindness, the voice of love, restful, peaceful, joyful, happy, excited! You're going to hear that voice, and you're never going to have a problem hearing the voice of God ever again. It will just be the kind voice, and you'll hear Him.

Your eyes are going to get big with wonder, and you see the world differently when you look through the lens of the Kingdom. If you're sensible, you could make five years growth in the next twelve months. There is permission for that. There is permission for that and along the way as you are exploring favor, you're going to get some revenge on the enemy. Isaiah 61 talks about favor and vengeance, and I'll tell you when you come into favor, the enemy is going to regret that he ever messed with you.

Listen to me now, whatever things brought you low or made you distressed or depressed, in whatever areas of your life the enemy made you a victim, God is going to deal with those places first because the low places have to get raised up. Then He is going to give you a ministry in the very area where you were once a victim, and your favor will be that you will set people free from the things that you were always a victim of. If that isn't the most fun ever, I don't know what is...

...All things are now possible. When you keep listening to the word, you're going to constantly find your heart settling for something new, and then for something new, and then something more, and then something bigger.
