

Praying With God

INTRODUCTION TO “Praying With God” Catalysts

“A catalyst expands and accelerates. These documents are designed as catalysts for your personal conversations with God, journaling or to share with any friends you may be walking this journey with. God asks relational questions for exploration... and so do we. Use these questions in any way that seems good to you and the Holy Spirit! (Tools to help you write your own Crafter Prayer will come later in the series.)”

- Graham and Allison

EPISODE 1: One of Your Benefits

God is always teaching us how to think because that is the definitive key to growth (Proverbs 23:7, Romans 12:2, 1 Corinthians 2:12-16). Sometimes, it’s perplexing when we discover what we thought was true, isn’t really the Truth.

That’s okay, as long as we remember that God is not the author of that confusion, we are! Familiar, old ways of seeing and thinking are being challenged by new possibilities!

When God challenges your thinking, He creates an opportunity for you to unlearn something so that you are no longer stuck...and that’s exciting!

CONTINUE THE JOURNEY:

What surprised you when you heard this episode?

What is one concept of prayer that you thought was true, but are realizing is not the Truth?

How did that discovery feel to you?

What will you get to unlearn?

What are you excited to be learning instead?

Additional Resources:

For more on how God uses questions:

<https://www.brillianttv.com/making-the-most-of-brilliant-tv-1/season:1/videos/7>

For more on “unlearning:” <https://www.brillianttv.com/videos/april-17-week-3>