

EMBRACING THE BEAUTY OF GOD

EPISODE 3: Prophetic Word Transcript

This word is called Simple Steps in Devotion.

Beloved, every time I connect with you, a number of things will happen in your life. My goal since the beginning has been to make people in My image and likeness. The goal of a strong, joyful devotional life is to use that time with Me to set you up for the day ahead.

I gave you the Holy Spirit, so that you will always have wisdom and revelation for the road ahead and for the life that you need in the Kingdom. It is important that your eyes of understanding are open to the light of what I see in you and how you see life through My eyes.

There is so much beauty in the way I see you in the life I have planned for you. When you embrace the fullness of My heart for you, beauty becomes a part of your heart and mind, and sets you free to encounter My delight.

My goal each day is that you would know the things that I have freely given to you in the circumstances that you are going through. And that you will acknowledge those gifts and use them to walk above your line of privilege.

You have already received the Holy Spirit, who is your come-alongside friend. He will teach you how to partner with us so that you can embrace freedom, provision and blessing. You are in Christ, so you have access to favor on a big scale. The Holy Spirit surrounds you with favor, so that the Kingdom becomes more powerful to you than the world around you. The eyes of your understanding play a key role in your devotional experience. The Spirit within you can look out through the eyes of favor and see your life situation from Our perspective.

Beloved, there's always a new lens on offer for everything you face. How We see things will cause you to rise up and take a firm stand of agreement with Christ in you. A lens causes your mind to focus on what We see. We see the present-future in the same place. That is, who you are now and who you will become next.

This current difficulty is simply the road of development that will empower you to become what We see. We do not cause your life difficulties, but We will take advantage of them for your sake. Your partnership begins when you see the outcome We have planned for you and come into agreement with the next part of your future.

Agreement requires a formal confession of your desire to walk with Us in the Way, the Truth and the Life today. You're welcoming Our engagement with you in learning, and in becoming more beautiful as a result.

The Holy Spirit is your guide and your Comforter on this journey. In this life situation, you are putting on Christ and putting off the flesh. I love that all negative thinking, perception and language in this current situation needs to be renewed in the Spirit. In particular, your emotions of how you feel about yourself, how you feel about the issues you face, and the emotional turmoil of fear, anxiety and stress. All these things need to come under the fruit of self control.

We are making war on all negativity in your life. Poor thinking, dominating, stressful emotions, inaccurate language and clouded vision. We're not making war on you. Only those things that do not belong to you in Jesus. Beloved, He already paid the price for those things, and He dropped them off in hell. They have no precedent for being in your life. Beauty keeps them at bay. When you know how lovely you are to Us, you will become convinced and fully persuaded of your value to Us.

In Jesus, you are learning to submit your mind, emotions, perception and language to the new man. If you're not in charge of your emotions, you cannot overcome in the future. If your emotions are not grounded in Jesus, then you lose ground in your life situations.

Poor emotions damage relationships. They cause you to lose whatever battle you are in. They ensure that you cannot learn effectively or grow in particular areas of need. This is where the fruit of self control is a huge part of your wisdom and partnership in the mind of Christ. Self control is like a TV remote that you use to put a variety of sights, sounds and actions on hold so you can hear My perspective. Also, you can use the remote to play back to a previous point, so you can get up to speed with what is really happening.

Beloved, We invented a spiritual capacity for self control in the same way. You can put your own flesh on hold. You can put your negative emotions and thinking on hold, so that you can focus with Us in a new and living way.

You can put difficult and meddlesome people on hold, so that you cannot be brow-beaten or overcome by their attitude and approach. You giving yourself pause to think and upgrade who I am for you. You can put the situation on hold so that you can step away from the pain and stress of a life situation that is hurtful.

This empowers you to take a new stance in your circumstance. Instead of anxiety, you can choose the peace of My presence. Instead of a negative thought, you can choose a powerful new mindset that will enable you to renew your thinking. Negative, angry or bitter words can now be replaced as you begin to trust, have hope and are renewed.

When you replay the issue using your new perspective, you can see and respond in the way that I would living in you. Self control is a powerful gift of renewal and refreshing. It is a great tool for binding, switching off and loosing; turning you into something that allows you to resonate with with Our presence.

This allows you to experience the real pleasure in unlearning. We can use your devotional time to learn about how We work with you, to empower you to become like Us in real life situations. We'll teach you the joy in detaching yourself from the negatives in your mind, in your emotions, and in your will, and replacing them with some amazing gifts of presence that are already in you, in Christ.

Beloved, your alone time with Us is the prime time for setting you up for the day ahead. Do not be studying a Bible verse that has nothing to do with your circumstances, just because it is part of a pre-programmed reading. We don't use programs. We train your heart to beat like Ours. We train your eyes, renew your mind, upgrade your trust; all the things you need to grow up in all things. Your devotional times are about recalibrating your life in alignment with Ours.

We love to see renewal every day. When situations last for a longer period, this is where We teach you patience. Patience is beautiful. Patience is the art of embracing renewal and refreshing, plus My joy so that you are undisturbed by the world, the flesh and the devil.

Patience is both a beautiful and powerful part of My presence. You are focused on Our majesty. So, intimidation, anger and threats come up against patience and they are reduced. Eventually, they have no effect as you practice a lifestyle of patient endurance through constant refreshing. Patience allows you to care, be concerned, but not at all dominated by people or events. We will teach you that in your time of quiet with Us.

Each fruit of the Spirit is taught in your devotional time, depending on what you need for today. What is the situation that is currently causing you the most stress? Use your devotional time, to embrace what We want to give you. In this way, detachment from the old you empowers a new attachment to the real you in Jesus. So, you can take possession of your possessions, step into your provision in the Kingdom, be constantly resourced from the place of empowering presence. Develop an expectation in Me that overcomes the enemy, overwhelms your circumstances and refreshes your life in the process. Become radically attached to Our passion and delight in you.

From this place, the negatives are all dismissed and replaced. They are no longer required and the real you has no more use for them. You can now formally declare your attachment to Us in your circumstances.

This is your identity statement in Jesus: "Father, this is who I choose to be in Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit." And then you can ask me for an upgrade. Carry it with you. Use it several times per day. This is how you practice the new you by using proclamation with thanksgiving and thoroughly enjoying the process.

Be sure that this upgrade will be tested thoroughly. Enjoy that too. Testing is the shortcut into huge growth. Count it all joy because testing is designed to establish your identity in Spirit and Truth. When tested, you prove your new identity by abiding in Me and letting the new Truth totally set you free.

Testing inoculates you from returning to the place of negativity and ruin. All things must become new. We love to stand in this place with you. We are in you, with you and for you in all things. Open your heart to the joyful process of being made in Our image.

And beloved be renewed and refreshed every day, just like Us.
