

THE WAY GOD WALKS WITH US

GRAHAM COOKE & ALLISON BOWN

EPISODE 16:

The Ways of God: Workplace Challenges Activation

“Our places of employment are unique experiences. They’re different than family or friendship dynamics. Which means, they offer us distinctive opportunities for transformation into the image of Christ.” - Graham Cooke

IMPACTING YOUR WORKPLACE WITH GOODNESS

- + First, consider the places that you have had your greatest breakthroughs in your personal relationship with the Lord.
  - Whatever you’ve been redeemed from you have the greatest authority to overcome because you have the “antibodies” to that particular negativity!
  - Make a list and keep a record so that the Holy Spirit can easily bring it to your remembrance, especially in challenging situations.

- Are there any missing pieces in your own experience of the Lord that He wants to provide for you through this experience?

+ Identify the negativity in your work environment.

- People can never be our enemy. We have only one enemy: the devil.
- How is he taking advantage of the ways of the world, the flesh or developing schemes to steal, kill or destroy the love, joy, peace or creativity of your work environment?

+ What is God's opposite for that negative that He desires you to be a catalyst of?

+ Partner with the Holy Spirit as to how you can demonstrate Kingdom values at work.

- Our Kingdom values are not just in words, but first in showing people what God is really, really like.
- Ask Him questions about your Grace Growers to see past their behavior.
- Are their actions a way of self-protecting from insecurity, uncertainty or low self-esteem?

- What are their missing pieces?

- "If Jesus were looking through your eyes, how would He see them?"

- + Create a plan with the Holy Spirit to provide practical support as well as personal connection.

- + Celebrate that you have the opportunity to show the same mercy, gentleness and kindness to someone else that you hope to be treated with in return one day when you are struggling to learn or complete your work with excellence.

- + Create a Crafted Prayer of blessing for this person or about your workplace that you can consistently pray at home or at work.

Be sure to share your stories (either past or present) of how you've partnered with the Lord in this process and who you became in Him because of it.

Our testimonies are powerful in encouraging each other. Together, we always see more.

Focus and stay with what the Holy Spirit shows you. These episodes and activations are an overview and a starting point for an exploration that will be on-going in your life.

The process of knowing and experiencing the way God walks with us is one that you'll be discovering for the rest of your days.

Thank you so much for going on this journey together and continuing on. We anticipate learning a great deal from YOUR discoveries.

With great anticipation and joy in Jesus,

Graham and Allison
