

JANUARY CHALLENGE

Creating a Devotional Lifestyle with God

DAY 3: Prophetic Word: “An Encounter With Majesty”

INTRODUCTION:

Welcome to the first Brilliant Challenge Prophetic Word for 2021.

This is a prophetic word that was first written many years ago. It has had a dramatic influence on my own life and I have used it on many occasions around the world.

It is timeless, powerful and designed to expand your perspective, thinking and language; to literally make you a new creation, in your awareness of God's True Union and Oneness, with you throughout your life.

The intention is that as you study this word you will understand the implications for The Creator and you together. So you will realize why nothing can separate you from the Majesty of God's Presence in you, in Christ.

So, sit back, relax and open your heart to listen.

Just be immersed in the heart and mind of Christ towards you; for you and in you.

Prophetic Word

Beloved,

My desire is for You and I to stand together in the same space of My majesty.

I love being on this journey with you and I am jubilant to be in every part of your story.

It is My great delight to be your Deliverer — as much as it is to walk with you as an Overcomer.

The days when I am your partner in joy are as wonderful to Me as the days I get to be your Comforter.

In every part of your life, I live in anticipation of your life-renewal process.

When you discover something that you are Not — and that I AM — I love getting to show you just how expansive My majesty is on your behalf.

When you know the Truth by encounter, that's when it sets you free to experience Me in fullness!

You are meant to be having hundreds of encounters with Us.

And, we're renewing the eyes of your heart to recognize where We are in every situation you face.

- When you live in Our reality that you're never alone.
- When you see that nothing can separate Us from you, you'll be amazed at what can change in how you see and think about yourself.

Notes

Your perspective of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit will elevate you to the same levels of Joy, Love, Peace, and Power that we enjoy in the Godhead!

This is why we gave you the Holy Spirit: because He is an irrepressible Genius full of life, full of hope, full of joy.

And He is your personal trainer, ready and totally able to lead you into all truth.

He knows everything there is to know about Jesus, and He lives to show you just how majestic, how beautiful, and how powerful He really is!

When you partner with Him in this process of strategic life exchange the possibilities are endless.

When we stand together in the place of majesty, you will better understand the implications of this space for Me.

Majesty thinking will separate you from the struggle, the battle, and the difficulty of any circumstance.

It elevates you to a place above; so that you are never under a problem, but can act from a place above it.

I can never be anything but faithful, and good, and kind towards you.

I can never be anything less than majestic on your behalf.

Beloved, never quit on my majesty.

Never abandon the sure and certain truth of who I have promised to be for you.

When you choose to walk according to your New Man, My favor empowers you to say, “YES!” to everything I AM for you and all we have to do together.

My favor and gifts of faith allow you to believe My “YES.” A divine cycle of favor gains momentum in your life.

Yes and Amen in Christ creates a powerful circle of agreement, alignment, and strategic purpose from Heaven to earth.

My “yes” to Christ in you empowers Him to set you up to win internally.

His “yes” to the Holy Spirit empowers the next stage of your development in the outer place of life circumstances which allows every promise to be realized in full and ensures that the power of Goodness prevails.

The Holy Spirit’s “yes” to Me is the seal of “mission accomplished” — which means the plan worked.

The problem is now a possibility — the purpose will be fulfilled.

As this cycle increases and elevates your perspective, your confidence will grow and you’ll find greater faith, peace, and joy in believing are the natural outcomes in your life.

It’s a powerful, relational process!

I will say “Yes” to all My promises.

“Yes” to your New Man.

“Yes” to making you to be like Me.

It’s a free pass into a magnificent experience of My faithfulness. I can never be less for you than who I really am.

You can only experience Me — which means you're learning to experience more!

When you stand with Me, when you live in the implications of your New Life in Me, everything changes because you will see the way I see.

You will recognize the favor that you have in My eyes.

You will live surrounded by affection and feel My smile.

The evidences of My nature in your life will grow exponentially until you — and those you know — recognize that you have been with Me.

So, Beloved, isn't it time for this double-mindedness about Me to end?

You don't have a sin nature, you have a sin habit which is totally broken as you realize how beautiful I am for you and in you, and how majestic your life is in Jesus!

I'm initiating a new level of relationship between us.

You have the opportunity to respond in peace and joy... believing in My majesty and favor.

This is who I really am.

This is who you really are in My Son.

The fullness of My favor is waiting for you to inhabit, in all its abundance.

Come into a place of understanding what is available to you in Jesus...

And be as committed to staying in that place, as I have been committed to creating it for you.

This is the place where you will know My presence and where I have deposited your provision.

It's the place where everything I have made available to you in Christ can come and overwhelm you.

The door is wide open. You have the keys of the Kingdom.

It's time to engage in the powerful process of locking up the old uncertainties and continuing to unlock the new, true you in Me.

Welcome to your new place of habitation and freedom.

Welcome to what Life In Christ was always meant to be.
