Regeneration Assignment for “In Christ, We Are Bound To The Nature Of God”

The full transcript is your real assignment.

These are some additional questions that will enable you to develop your believing and thinking going forward. I have used them for years.

- Always focus on the key truths and what they mean for you.
- What aspects of God’s nature are being revealed to me?
- What does He want to be for me in my growth and development?
- What are the key breakthroughs in these truths?
- What negative ideas about myself are being encouraged to leave?
- What is replacing them?
- Write a short note of thanks to the Creator for what He is doing in you now!
- What obstacles to growth can I overcome in this particular episode?

- What am I discovering that I would like to take further?

- What interaction with the Lord is now available to me as I learn these lessons?

- If I lived in this enhanced and elevated place of fellowship with the fullness of God's love... what would change for me?

- It is totally true that rejoicing is good for you!

Write some key sentences where you express your delight in all that the Three are teaching you in this devotional episode.
