

SEPTEMBER CHALLENGE

Expectation: The Power in Taking God For Granted

DAY 3: *Prophetic Word: "Expectation & Transformation"

INTRODUCTION:

If you are new to the BTV Challenge, you do not need to take notes. Everything I teach and prophecy is written down and included in the notes. So, just sit back, relax, and listen from your heart.

Prophetic Word

Beloved, My intention is to open your life up to the same rest and peace with Me that Jesus had. To create a territory in your inner man of the Spirit and bring you into a place of inheritance that Jesus occupies.

There is a Land of Promise located in your new man in Christ. He is the territorial Spirit within you that overcomes.

The world and its chaos are no match for the Kingdom and its magnificence. The Kingdom within will always focus on: the new man in Christ, the saving power of Jesus, the anointing in Holy Spirit and the passion of your Father, God, for you to inherit the Kingdom.

Notes

These are huge building blocks for your rest and peace with Me, says the Lord. The promise of I AM is with you, it is greater than any threat coming against you.

No matter the circumstances in the world. Your inner land of promise will empower you to draw blessings, and miracles in Jesus. You will know the favor and resources from My words of promise, which I hide in your heart.

Even as circumstances get darker and more desperate in the world, your inner light of promise will shine, giving you a release of power that will turn aside chaos. You will have no fear, anxiety or dread in these days. Instead there will be a joy and peace in believing that you are the Beloved of Christ.

You are the Bride, being prepared for Jesus, the King of Promise. Your beauty, power and grace will be huge and majestic. The world will see the Beloved rising up in the earth.

The evidence that you are living fully in the new man in Christ is that you will have constant upgraded responses to all your life situations. It is time, Beloved, for the world to see the fullness of Jesus in My people. You are My visual aid to all of humanity to show forth the majesty of My Kingdom.

Beloved, you must not disown My glory. Glory cannot be seen in a people who are the same as everyone else. All of Egypt saw My hand at the Red Sea. People heard of the cloud and pillar of fire leading Israel out of captivity. People saw the wealth of Egypt given to slaves of Israel...now walking as a free people.

I did the impossible for 40 years in the desert as a rabble of slaves became a disciplined army who could take territory. The fame of Solomon's kingdom, the glory of the temple were known in all the surrounding nations.

Miracles, signs and wonders are only extraordinary on earth...they are not even required in heaven!

Is anything too hard for Me? Is there any situation where I cannot be magnificent? Beloved, do not live like a beggar when you have an inheritance in My Son and in Myself.

Fullness is not an option, it is a necessity in a world threatened with chaos and uncertainty. My people will no longer be the obstacle to glory. They will be the solution as they experience the fullness that Jesus died to give them.

The real battle in the world is with hope. Hope is the favorable and confident expectation of goodness. Joyful anticipation provides a capacity to look forward with an assurance, and partner with Me in the fullness of all I intend for you.

Today, I commission you to cultivate the power of expectation into a true lifestyle in Christ. There is a place of abiding in Him where My own enormous, outrageous expectation of goodness will lift you into a place of power and prominence in My Kingdom and in the world.

I AM is with you to do you good. In Christ, you possess a new covenant. One that is based entirely on favor and the expectation of goodness.

Your inheritance in Christ is a goodness that overcomes, overwhelms and overturns the natural order of man. Your life is now one of encounter with expectation so great...it will engulf your circumstances and overwhelm your hearts.

Embrace the Kingdom and the church will be empowered to return to her rightful place in the world. The Body of Christ will realign with the head and return to its resurrection beginning.

The Head over all things will come for His real body. The King will return for His true bride, and the world will see the glory of My house reigning and ruling by their inheritance.

For that to happen, you must step into a new way of seeing, thinking and speaking. The heart of Christ must govern in all your life events. This inner life of promise in your heart will enable you to have creative thoughts and ideas about your life responses to God in your circumstances.

There is a flow of a river of promises that will come to you in scripture, prophecy, dreams and upgraded vision. More promises than you require so that you will release them into your cities and nations.

Inventions, patents, and wealth ideas will come to you from the power and the substance of the Kingdom. There will be an outpouring of majesty the likes of which the world has never seen!

When there seems no way forward and your promise seems far away or dwarfed by circumstances...ask Me for My spirit of wisdom & revelation! Your promise will expand by My will so that it overshadows all. I will declare My majesty through the promise of goodness.

In the same way that Jesus moved in expectation when He sent Peter to the sea to fish so that the coin in it's mouth would pay their taxes...so I will give you the same wild and miraculous moments that will elevate your life above the ordinary.

These times of chaos in the world will demonstrate the power of the Kingdom in a way that will rock your world and set you apart as being different. Ordinary...but powerful beyond measure.

Beloved, an expectant heart must become a constant so that you are constantly pregnant with promise in your spirit. There is always a promise of more to come. It will be new every morning.

A promise is a personal word of honor from Me to you and therefore it becomes a guarantee of fulfillment. My word will not return to Me empty. It will accomplish what I want.

If you let go of it, another will pick it up so that the promise will succeed in the matter for which I sent it.

Expectation leads to anticipation, which will put you in advance of earthly matters. Before you call, I will answer so that you may respond before an event rather than react later. I will be with you regardless of circumstances. You will learn how to see and anticipate how to stand. So that you appropriate things before the time.

Expectation will introduce a new tone into prayer, a language that creates a new focus in expectation. In this way, you will ride the waves of circumstance and not drown in events.

You will be the bandwagon that everyone wants to be on! Expect to apprehend, to have encounters, resolution, growth in Christ in Kingdom power. Look forward to all that I will release in and for you!

It's My good pleasure to give you Christ so that you will inherit the Kingdom.

Amen. Thank you, Father!

FOLLOW UP INSTRUCTIONS

Seven Steps To Inherit These Promises:

1. This is a very particular word in that it creates a place to PAUSE with God.

Have a Selah moment and ask the Spirit which aspect of this word He wants you to experience. Make pause be effective.

Put aside any negative so that grace...God's empowering presence fills your heart. A pause means that you take a break from any negative so you can re-focus on the One who loves you.

2. Come and STAND before Him.
Stand in Jesus! You are a joint heir in Him.

You can receive regardless of circumstances because Jesus lives in you.

His acceptance as the Beloved is also your place of approval. Breathe slowly here. Your truth is 1 John 4:17: "As He is, so am I in this world."

3. This is your opportunity to AGREE with God and know His peace.

Quote whatever part of this prophecy that is impacting on your heart. Explore it, think about it, and speak it out loud.

Use rejoicing and thanksgiving to strengthen your attention. This promise belongs to you!

4. Confess the word. To confess is to say the same as!

It means to acknowledge God and His word as having the dominant focus in trust first, in His nature.

God does not lie, He never changes, He is always the same...FAITHFUL. Trust in God's nature leads to faith in God's power.

To acknowledge is to acclaim and proclaim God's version of your life truth. We guarantee the promise by the gratitude we exhibit!

5. Take a STEP forward INTO the place of accepting and receiving. This means stepping out of a negative by taking a step into your rightful heart response.

Hold your ground with joy. John 15:11 is a great statement from Jesus to quote right now! "These things I have spoken unto you so that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full."

All steps in Jesus must be made in the joy of His life...not the pain of ours!

6. You are now ready to RECLAIM what belongs to Jesus in you as your own right of relationship, in Him. Hear the Father say, "Beloved, all that I have is yours!"

You are going to have an encounter with The Provider. The Holy Spirit will empower you to receive by faith. Remember, Christ in you deserves you to have this favor, this blessing, this provision!

7. Take POSSESSION in Jesus name!

Lay hold of what belongs to you because of Jesus living in you! This is about ownership.

You belong to God because He paid a price for your life...so that you could be a son/daughter in His household. He has pride of ownership in you!

Taking possession of His promises to you means that you must encounter the same pride of ownership. You have an inheritance as a joint heir in Christ.

Jesus deserves for you to receive this gift of grace. Take it and hold onto it for the rest of your life! A promise is not situational. It is always a relational gift!

Amen.

I hope you will enjoy many years of abundant living in the Lord Jesus.

Thank you so much for listening!
