

Fruit of the Spirit

About this Series

In this series: “The Fruit of the Spirit,” we are praying for a dynamic new experience of God within the context of His true nature. We believe that what you think about God is the most important thought you’ll ever have.

God’s primary purpose is making us into His own image. But what is that image? Are we seeing Him in the fullness of who He is?

The true nature of God is clearly evidenced in the Fruit of the Spirit, because these are not merely attributes that He has. They are the very character of the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. Because God IS love. He embodies joy. He is the Prince of Peace, and every single Fruit of the Spirit is an invitation to encounter God. It's a door that is wide open to transformation.

Often in ministry, we see people who were touched by God, but ultimately not changed. Men and women who had powerful encounters with God, but never converted their experiences into transformation, which is where we are made into the daily image of Christ.

When circumstances challenge us, the Fruit of the Spirit compels us to ask:

“What aspect of the nature of God can I experience in this situation?”

"How is a greater revelation of His gentleness, His goodness and His kindness going to pull me back from the brink of fear, or anxiety, or panic? And how will that same revelation turn me around to focus on becoming more like Him?"

This is the very place where we begin to shift our thinking from, “I HAVE to do this,” toward the delight of realizing, “I GET to do this with God! This situation might have been intended by the enemy for something negative, but now I get to see and experience something amazing about the nature of God’s love, joy, peace...and only be overwhelmed by that!”

God is around your life saying, “I love your transformation process. I love being with you in everything you encounter. Won’t you love it with Me, the same way I love it with you? Won’t you join Me in an adventure to discover who I really am? And in the process, discover who you really are in Christ?”

If God’s #1 priority is to make us in His image, then that needs to be our #1 priority as well.

About this Series

The Fruit of the Spirit is more than a sweet list of possibilities. It's a storehouse of promises and provision. It's a key resource that converts us from being touched by the Lord to being radically transformed into His likeness.

Where difficult circumstances would leave us rooted in negativity and feeling overwhelmed, the Fruit of the Spirit lifts our spirit and gives us an elevated perspective. NOTHING works against the Fruit of the Spirit according to Galatians 5:23. Paul wrote, "Against such, there is no law." These are our weapons for which the enemy has no defense.

In the "Fruit of the Series," you will discover the power, the truth and the beauty of a life in Jesus. Become transformed by living every day with a fresh revelation of the true nature of God, as revealed to us through the Fruit of the Spirit.

Enjoy the learning!
